NINETEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT IN AND
FOR INDIAN RIVER, MARTIN, OKEECHOBEE,
AND ST. LUCIE COUNTIES, FLORIDA

A M E N D E D A D M I N I S T R A T I V E O R D E R 92-7
S U P P L E M E N T S 79-4, 84-3 AND 88-9

To amend Administrative Order 92-7 so as to conform it to Administrative Order 91-2 and newly amended Administrative Order 88-9, then Administrative Order 92-7 is amended to read as follows:

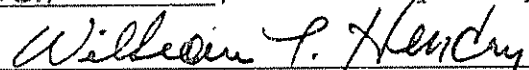

WHEREAS, it has been brought to the attention of the Chief Judge that the Judges of the Nineteenth Judicial Circuit are not always being informed in a timely manner of filings requiring immediate action and attention, therefore:

Pursuant to Rule 2.050 of the Florida Rules of Judicial Administration, the Judge presently assigned to the case shall be promptly notified of the following filings assigned to that Judge:

- A. Writs of Mandamus
- B. Writs of Certiorari combined with other requested relief
- C. Writs of Habeas Corpus
- D. Writs of Prohibition
- E. Notice of Setting Trial
- F. Motion for Speedy Trial
- G. Mandates from higher Appellate Court
- H. Motions for Discharge for Want of Speedy Trial
- I. Petitions for Temporary Injunctions for Domestic Violence
- J. Any documents that require a Judge's immediate attention

Such prompt notification shall be made by the clerk personally delivering a copy of the filing with the court file attached immediately to the office of the assigned Judge. "Immediately" means delivering a copy of the filing with the court file within one working day from the date of filing.

DONE AND ORDERED in Port St. Lucie, St. Lucie County, Florida
this 16 day of March, 1993 in quadruplicate.

William L. Hendry, Chief Judge
Nineteenth Judicial Circuit
